For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
 Isaiah 9:6

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register.

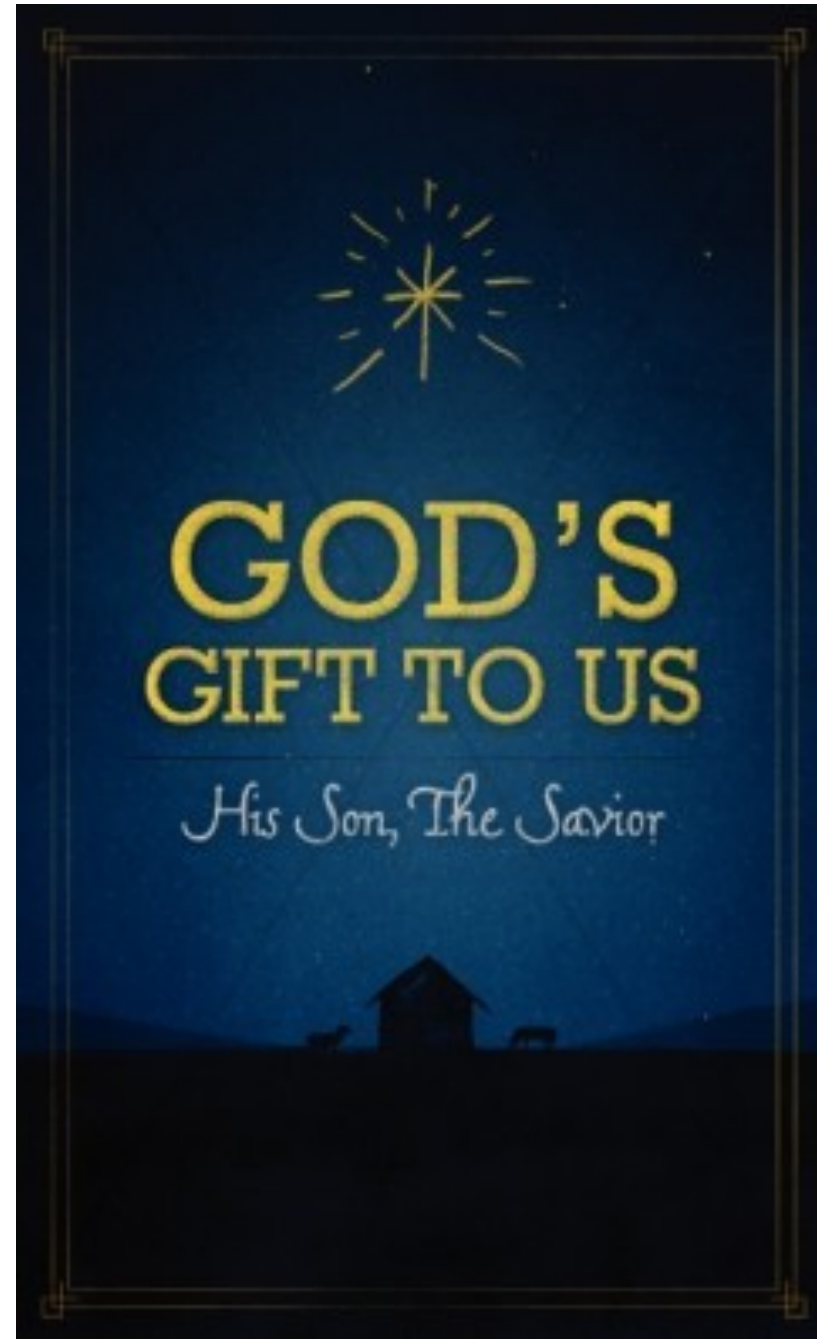

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

Luke 2:1-14

The Personalities
 Henry Ward Beecher was once one of the most famous preachers in America. One Sunday he was away from his church, and a visiting preacher substituted for him. When the preacher made his way up to the pulpit, some people realized that Beecher was gone, and some even headed for the doors. The preacher said, "May I have your attention? All those who came this morning to worship Henry Ward Beecher may now withdraw from the church All those who came to worship God may stay."
 People may come to church worship service for many reasons: to hear a certain preacher, to enjoy the worship music, to watch their children perform, to visit with their friends. But the most important reason is to give honor and glory to God.
